

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS CHICAGO

College of Applied
Health Sciences

Exercise Based Multiple Sclerosis Research Study Needs Volunteers

STUDY2022-1354-MOD020
Effective: 9/10/2025
Expires: 9/2/2026
UIC Office for the Protection of Research Subjects

TO SEE IF YOU QUALIFY:

New clinical trial for Multiple Sclerosis and low mood

The University of Illinois Chicago has a new clinical trial for people with multiple sclerosis and a history of depressive symptoms.

The Mood and Exercise Training Study for Multiple Sclerosis involves the remote delivery of a 4-month exercise training program with a 4-month follow up period.

FOR MORE INFORMATION
CONTACT

THE EXERCISE NEUROSCIENCE RESEARCH LAB:

1(833)413-0280

METSforMS@UIC.EDU

Principal Investigator: Dr Robert Motl STUDY2022-1354